

Teaching Healthcare Professionals A Christian Approach

Saturday 28th September 2019

10.30am to 4.30pm
CMF Conference Room
6 Marshalsea Road
London, SE1 1HL

If you are a Christian involved in teaching/training students or colleagues in the NHS or another secular context and wonder how you can best bring your faith and values into what you are doing in a sensitive and appropriate way, this one day course is for you.

£10 delegate fee - tea, coffee and lunch provided

PROGRAMME

10.30am Introductions

Session 1: The importance of Role Modelling

Being a Christian influence as a health-care professional (HCP) teacher is totally dependent on being a good role model.

Break (tea/coffee)

Session 2: The Characteristics of Jesus as a Teacher

Jesus the teacher seminar based on parable of Good Samaritan (Luke 10)

Break (lunch)

Session 3: Teaching Compassion

Compassion, can it be taught? The evidence of benefits from compassion from medical and nursing literature

Break (tea/coffee)

Session 4: When/ how can we explicitly refer to our Christian faith as HCP Teachers?

The Christian Difference

Session 5: Rounding it up

Prayer

4.30pm: End

Bookings are being taken via the PRIME website

If you have any questions please contact the PRIME Operations team: 01424 774189

admin@prime-international.org

Although all PRIME teaching is usually designed to be acceptable to those of all faiths and of none, this course is designed specifically for Christians.

Protection Statement: Any personal data you supply will be processed and held by PRIME, in accordance with the Data Protection Act, for the purpose of administering this conference. It will not be shared with any third parties. As with all PRIME conferences any surplus funds will be used to further the charitable work of PRIME. Photos taken at the event may be used for PRIME publicity. Please let us know in advance if you are not in agreement with this.

