AUTHENTIC CHRISTIANITY IN A SECULAR AGE

Life in the UK has become very complex for Christians as our culture is increasingly hostile to the Bible's worldview and intolerant of anyone who will not conform to the new liberal morality. Christian medics are at the forefront of this culture war. Daniel was a brilliant young man who lived in a similarly hostile culture which put him under extreme pressure to comply with its value system. He found the strength to resist and the wisdom to be discerning in a context which he could do nothing about. Over the weekend, we will study his life and ask what we can learn as Christians today.

Who is the conference for?

We welcome members of the medical and allied professions to the conference; you don't need to be a member of CMF to attend. Non medical family members and day visitors are welcome, as are those who can only attend for part of the conference.

Children's programme & crèche

There will be a full programme for primary school-age children during all main sessions, including Friday evening. There will be a crèche for pre-school children during the main sessions on Saturday and Sunday. We will have a core of two people looking after the children and will ask parents to help during one of the sessions. The children's leaders very much appreciate assistance, and welcome volunteers. Please indicate on the booking form if you are a member of the Protecting Vulnerable Groups (PVG) scheme.

ORGANISING COMMITTEE

The conference has been organised by the CMF SW Scotland Catalyst Team.
