Theology of the body

Joe & Grace Watson

Christianity teaches that humans are made in the image of God. What does this mean and how might our bodies reveal God? What do our bodies tell us of ourselves and how might this affect how we live?

Joe is a doctor in anaesthetics specialty training in the North West of England. He is interested in questions of identity, cross-cultural mission, and global health equity.

Grace is a doctor in paediatrics specialty training in the North West of England. She has a research interest in endocrinology (hormones) and has a master's in bioethics from the University of Notre Dame, Australia.

Cultural engagement

Ben Chang

Ben is a writer, speaker, and Emergency Medicine Registrar in London. He is the author of the new book Christ and the Culture Wars: Speaking for Jesus in a World of Identity Politics.

Legal aspects

Danny Webster

Danny leads the Evangelical Alliance's UK advocacy team. He has degrees in politics and political philosophy and is passionate about encouraging Christians to integrate faith with all areas of life. He helped initiate the EA's Public Leadership programme and frequently comments on current political issues in EA publications and to the press.

Clinical aspects

Laurence Crutchlow

Laurence is CMF Associate Head of Student Ministries and a GP in London.
