BIBLICAL LEADERSHIP FOR NURSES

Leadership is vital in the health service, and there are plenty of courses for nurses and midwives on being leaders in the workplace. However, while secular models of leadership have much to teach us, they do not spring from a biblical, God-centred worldview.

What then does the Bible say about leadership? How does it relate to what we deal with every day as a nurse or midwife? How can we relate secular training to biblical leadership?

This course, developed from a programme created by Nurses Christian Fellowship International (NCFI), seeks to equip and empower Christian nurses and midwives in biblical values to enable them to transform their teams, workplaces, organisations and communities.

The programme will explore the NCFI model of the leader as Servant, Shepherd, Steward and Scholar and how these relate to clinical leadership in terms of calling, competence and character.

The course will run over three Saturdays from 10.30am to 4.30pm. It is recommended that you attend all three days, but if that is impossible you can book individual days, which will run as follows:

DAY 1 Saturday
23 September 2017

- Introduction to concepts of Biblical Leadership for Nurses
- The calling of the Leader

DAY 2 Saturday
21 October 2017

- The competencies of the Leader

DAY 3 Saturday
25 November 2017

- The character of the Leader
- Reflection on programme & next steps

Days two and three will also include time to discuss and review with others how they have used the skills and concepts from the previous sessions.

There will also be an ongoing social media community to keep participants in contact with one another and to share ideas and experiences, prayer needs and spiritual reflections.
